DRAMATIC BALKAN DEVELOPMENT: BLOODLESS ARMY COUP D'ETAT IN YUGOSLAVIA: BOY KING PETER TAKES ROYAL POWER IN HAND

Premier And Minister Who Signed Axis Pact Arrested: Prince Paul Flees

A BLOODLESS MILITARY COUP D'ETAT WAS CARRIED OUT IN THE CAPITAL OF YUGOSLAVIA AT 2.30 O'CLOCK YESTERDAY MORNING, STATES A LONDON MESSAGE. THE BOY KING PETER II, WITHIN SIX MONTHS OF HIS 18TH BIRTHDAY, TOOK ROYAL POWER INTO HIS OWN HANDS.

The arrest of M. TSVETKOVITCH, the Prime Minister, and other Ministers who signed the Axis Pact, was closely followed by the appointment of GENERAL DUSAN SIMOVITCH, Head of the Air Force, as leader of the new Government, and the issue of a Proclamation by the young King calling for unity and loyalty within Yugoslavia in the present crisis in the country's history, says Reuter.

PRINCE PAUL, THE SENIOR BEGENT, fled with his wife when the coup took place.

An official statement made in Belgrade and a broadcast by the Budapest radio shows that the Proclamation is as follows:

"Serbs, Croats and Slovenes: at this point so grave in the history of our people, I have decided to take Royal power into my own hands.

"Members of the Regency Council appreciated the correctness of the reasons for my action and immediately resigned of their own accord.

"The Royal Army and Navy have placed themselves at my disposal and are already carrying out my orders.

"I APPEAL TO ALL SERBS, CROATS AND SLOVENES TO RALLY ROUND THE THRONE IN THE PRESENT GRAVE CRISIS. This is the surest way to preserve internal order and external peace.

Full Allied Support For Young King

The Prime Minister, Mr. Churchill's speech in London yesterday would normally have been devoted mainly to domestic affairs, but the announcement of an epoch-making event in Yugoslavia and full Allied support for the young King and the new Government give it worldwide significance, says Reuter.

"I have great news for you and the whole country," he said. "Early this morning, the Yugoslav nation found its soul. Revolution has taken place in Belgrade and the Ministers who but yesterday signed away the honour and freedom of their country were reported under arrest."

NO CATALOGUE ON PEACE AND WAR AIMS

Speaking in London yesterday of the peace, which will follow the present war, the Prime Minister expressed a strong hope for national unity in the making of peace, says Reuter.

Because of the interests of national unity, he continued, he refrained from producing the catalogue of war aims or peace aims.

Cheers greeted Mr. Churchill's statement that he was glad to see that President Roosevelt was of the same opinion.

The Prime Minister declared that he had great confidence in the future and mentioned the rising spirit of the Great American nation.

HAWKERS ROBBED

Found by an Indian constable at Pokfulam Road with their hands and feet bound, two hawkers were taken to the West Point Police Station early yesterday morning.

One of the victims, Kao Man, stated that about 3.30 a.m. he encountered two robbers who, after trying him up took $2 from his pocket.

The other hawker met a similar fate and was robbed of $2.40.

Battle Of The Atlantic Must Be Won

Mr. Churchill declared yesterday that he could not doubt that "before many months are passed, I shall be able to declare to you that the battle of the Atlantic has been decisively won." He was addressing a meeting of the Central Council of the National Union Conservative Associations, says Reuter.

"The battle of the Atlantic must be won so that food supplies, munitions and every form of American aid may come to us in ever-growing volume."

NEW CABINET

LONDON, Mar. 27 (Reuter)—A Berlin announcement of developments of Yugoslavia states the new Cabinet includes leaders and representatives of all political parties and all sections of the population.

The principal portfolios are M. SIMOVITCH, Premier; M. MATCHEK, Vice-Premier; and M. NINCITCH, Foreign Minister.

The official German news Agency, in a statement issued from Berlin, now announces the formation of the new Yugoslav Government under General Simovitch, and adds, somewhat lamely, that it is formed "after consultation with the leading persons in the Yugoslav capital."

"I have charged the Army Corps General Simovitch with the formation of a new government.

"I appeal to all to support the new Government."

The Proclamation concludes with an appeal to all Serbs, Croats and Slovenes to carry on and stand behind the Throne.

King Peter issued a second proclamation appealing to the population to continue usual vocations.

General Milodij Stefanovitch, who was appointed the Governor of Belgrade, has issued an appeal to the people to unite in standing behind the Army which "is ready to defend the country's independence and integrity."

The Army has taken an oath of allegiance to the new War Minister, General Blitch.

A BRIGHT STAR

Thousands of people gathered outside the palace of the Patriarch of the Orthodox Church, following the change of Government in the country.

Addressing the crowd, the Patriarch said that at this dark hour in the history of the country there appears a bright star of the dynasty—King Peter II.

He appealed to the people to stand behind their young King and answer the sterling call of the country.

He concluded: "The Church is with you, as always."

Belgrade was superficially calm at midnight.

Local demonstrations were quelled by squads of police who, however, acted most reasonably.

The most important demonstration yesterday was outside the Soviet Legation where crowds shouted "Long live England. Long live Russia. Down with Hitler. Down with Mussolini."

ASPECT CHANGED

Dramatic developments in Belgrade have completely changed the aspect of the European situation with a startling suddenness, writes Reuter's diplomatic correspondent.

"The development came most opportunely with Mr. Matsuo's message to the Nazis, congratulating Germany on her diplomatic success which had given him great joy."

DIRECT WARNING BY DONOVAN TO UNITED STATES AGAINST THE DANGERS OF INDECISION

COLONEL WILLIAM J. DONOVAN, WHO FOR SOME MONTHS HAS BEEN TOURING QUIETLY IN EUROPE AS PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S OFFICIAL OBSERVER, made an important and outspoken broadcast in New York on Wednesday night.

Col. Donovan is one of the most fully informed men in the whole world on the war situation, background and possibilities, and up to the present he has been totally silent in public as to the conclusions he has drawn from his recent experiences and information received in Europe, says Reuter.

The speech, therefore, is particularly important as it constituted a direct warning to the United States against the dangers of indecision, asking the Americans "Are we prepared to take the chance?"

He pointed out the two provisions of the Lease and Lend Act could be considered acts of war, and declared the only choice for the American people was whether or not they would resist Herr Hitler.

He said that the Nazis, although equipped with modern arms, were not as yet prepared to carry out an offensive, but they were proud of the fact that Turkey was an ally of Britain.

After recounting what leaders of Governments, economists, generals and private soldiers had told him, Col. Donovan said that from the Nazi point of view, England was only one of the series of obstacles which stood between her and world domination.

To Germany, each country which was overwhelmed served two purposes. It was acquisition in itself and prepared the way for the next act of expansion.

"If England falls, Germany has no other fear in Europe or the Middle East. She can deal with Russia at her leisure; she would obtain every port, aerodrome and trans-Atlantic terminus in Europe."

"She would obtain the French and Italian Fleets. Certainly she would obtain British Fleet bases, not only in Europe, but in Africa."

Col. Donovan said that England was much stronger than when he last saw her in the black days of summer, 1940, after the fall of Dunkirk.

"Each week the situation improves, but not until 1942 will England be fully armed. This year is the year of difficulties and dangers," he added.

MUST ANSWER NOW

In alluding to the Lease and Lend Bill, Col. Donovan said that it was an essential part of German tactics to prevent American supplies from reaching their destination, and added: "Are we going to deliver the goods? That question must be answered now."

Future Of Labour, Industry, Democracy

LONDON, Mar. 27 (Reuter)—"The future of labour, industry and democracy will be decided by the outcome of the war, not only in our time but for generations to come," said the United States Ambassador, MR. J. G. WINANT, speaking at a luncheon given in his honour by the British Employers' Confederation and Trades Union Congress.

Referring to the British as a free people, Mr. Winant said: "The strength of understanding and leadership is making itself felt more and more day by day. It has already enabled you to resist what no slave or regimenting people could ever resist."

"It will bring you total victory."

Mr. Churchill attended the luncheon and was in a jovial, humorous and buoyant mood.

GERMANS LEAVING AMERICA

NEW YORK, Mar. 27 (Reuter)—A mass evacuation of German nationals from the United States is now under way, reports the NEW YORK DAILY NEWS.

One hundred and ninety-one German women and children and men over military age embarked in a Spanish liner Magallanes on Wednesday and the women declared that their husbands had already left for Germany via San Francisco.

The newspaper regards the evacuation as preliminary to the rupture of diplomatic relations between Germany and the United States.

TOMAHAWKS IN MIDDLE EAST

The American Tomahawk planes, fast single-engine machines and heavily armed with cannons, have arrived in the Middle East, states a London message.

Meanwhile the battle for Keren continues after 18 days of fighting in intense heat, and the situation continues to develop satisfactorily.

Counter-attacks have been repulsed and many prisoners including a brigade, have been taken. In Eastern Abyssinia operations over most difficult country are proceeding according to plan.

FORREST-KOBZA AGREEMENT WAS COMPLETE SURPRISE TO COLONIAL SECRETARY: SYSTEM OF GENERAL AGENT NOT CONTEMPLATED

THE HON. MR. N. L. SMITH, COLONIAL SECRETARY, ATTENDED THE RESUMED SITTINGS AT THE SUPREME COURT YESTERDAY AFTERNOON OF THE COMMISSION OF INQUIRY INTO THE AFFAIRS OF THE IMMIGRATION DEPARTMENT, when he was asked several questions by Mr. R. A. D. Forrest, Immigration Officer.

The Commission comprises His Honour Sir Atholl MacGregor (Chairman), Mr. C. Bernard Brown, Mr. D. Drummond, Mr. H. K. Woo and Mr. K. M. A. Barnett (Secretary). Hearing will be continued at the Supreme Court tomorrow at 10 a.m.

Referring to the agreement between Mr. Forrest and Mr. Kobza, the Colonial Secretary said that it was a complete surprise to him. He was shown the agreement by Mr. Kobza (after it had been signed) in his (Mr. Smith's) office at a late stage.

Mr. Smith added that Government did its best to give extra staff to the Immigration Office but it was very difficult at the time as the War Taxation Office had taken the cream from the other departments.

Mr. Forrest: You remember ever since the office opened I have made visits to you on which I spoke to you sometimes very excitedly, on the lack of staff.

Mr. Smith: Certainly. I think that these visits and the same complaints continued during your two absences. I think that is quite likely.

You may remember seeing one minute written in the North—

I reported in very strong terms at various times in writing that I was afraid something more serious might go wrong if I could not get something done—I do think that probable.

SAW REPORTS

Replying to further questions, Mr. Smith said he had seen the reports of Mr. Pudney and Mr. Pollard.

Mr. Forrest: On receipt of these reports, was any person from the Secretariat, whether on the administrative or the financial side, sent down to take a first hand impression of my office? Not as far as I am aware.

An unknown Chinese was found dead early yesterday morning near the gymnasium of the Chinese Y.M.C.A. Bridges Street.

It is believed that he had committed suicide by jumping down from the roof.

Today's News Summary

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE BALKANS have taken a sensational turn where in the capital of Yugoslavia a bloodless military coup d'etat was carried out yesterday morning and the boy King Peter the Second has taken Royal power in his own hands.

THE YUGOSLAV PRIME MINISTER and other Ministers who signed the Axis Pact in Vienna have been arrested and it is reported that the Senior Regent, Prince Paul, has fled from the country with his wife. This startling news from Belgrade was announced by the British Prime Minister, Mr. Churchill, when he spoke in London.

IN AN IMPORTANT BROADCAST, Colonel W. J. Donovan, who toured Europe as President Roosevelt's personal representative, sounded a direct warning to the United States against the dangers of indecision. Referring to the Lease and Lend Bill he said it would mean nothing if what was produced in America could not reach its destination.

FIRST SIGNS IN DIPLOMACY rupture between America and Germany is seen in the mass evacuation of German women and children and men of military age from the United States.

DISTANT VIEW, UNITED EXPRESS & SAPPER TO CONTEST BROKEN HILL HANDICAP

STEWARDS' CUP "CLASSIC" OF THE DAY: TWO EVENTS ARE CONFINED TO NOVICES

BY "LAST QUARTER"

THERE WILL BE NO FIELD OF OVER 16 RUNNERS AT THE SECOND EXTRA RACE MEETING TO BE HELD TOMORROW AFTERNOON at Happy Valley, as only in one event, The Stewards' Cup, has this number been reached. This "classic" will be one of the main features of the afternoon's racing and is confined to Australian Griffins of this season; winners of $5,000 or more in stakes barred. The race is from the two mile post once round and in and should prove most interesting as the ponies will be racing with handicap weights.

In the Broken Hill Handicap for "A" Class Australians over the same distance as the Stewards' Cup, there are ten entries but this should in no way detract the public's interest in the actual racing. As United Express, the champion subscription griffin of the year and undefeated heretofore, has been entered and will have a pull of 7 lbs. from Sapper, the top weight in the race. Distant View, who was beaten by Sapper at weight for inches in the Champions at the Annual Meeting will likewise benefit tomorrow with a 7 lbs. handicap.

The Fatshan Handicap for "C" Class China ponies is divided into two sections — the second and eighth races on the programme. Both these events are confined to Novice Jockeys and will be run from the 1 1/2 Mile Post. Whilst the provision for novices commands itself, I am somewhat disappointed that it should be over a sprint distance. It would probably just mean a fast getaway, with little opportunity for the riders to sit down properly and have a real try at driving their mounts — and many a novice in this Colony badly needs practice in this sphere. Personally, I favour races of a mile or over for Novice Jockeys.

KONGMUN PLATE

The racing opens with a mile event for China ponies, griffins of this season; winners of $1,000 or more in stakes barred. Lovelylight has been entered and if this bay has recovered fully from the ill-effects of her run in the Hongkong Derby, I do not think pun-

MARATHON RACE TODAY

MANSON FAVOURED TO WIN

The annual Kowloon Marathon Race over a course of 6 1/2 miles will be run this evening, starting at 9 p.m. sharp in Nathan Rd. outside St. Andrew's Church.

Nineteen entries have been received, units represented being Middlesex Regiment, Royal Corps of Signals, Royal Air Force, Royal Scots, while there are also two civilians entered.

Pte. Manson (R. Scots) will start favourite, while others likely to finish in the first five are Sig. Lewis (R. Signals) and L. A. C. Moulton (R.A.F.).

The civilian entries are C. Truax, inter-school 1,500 metres champion and D.B.S. cross-country run winner, and S. N. Aromin, of Kowloon Pts. Corrigan (R. Scots), winner of the Marathon last year, is not entered.

CRICKET SHIELD WON BY R.E.

Royal Engineers at Soekunpoo yesterday won the Large Units Cricket Knock-out competition. At the conclusion of the game Brig. T. McLeod presented the trophy.

R.E. 145 and 64 (Ratcliffe 37; Dewar 5 for 22; Murphy 4 for 30). Small Units 65 (Coombes 23; Troop 3 for 14) and 79 (Logan 24; Coombes 19; Megson 9 for 25).

FATSHAN HANDICAP (FIRST SECTION)

The first of the two events for Novices and the start should have a bearing effect on the finish in this five furlong sprint. Johnber and Thirty Six are likely contenders and I favour the former after Wednesday morning's fast 3/4 mile training gallop inside 1:32. Thirty Six ran very convincingly at the Annual Meeting but was up against tough opposition and should therefore show up better tomorrow despite little loss in form of late. Lancashire Lass also appears to be somewhat backward, so my next choice is Eve of Peace. Jennifer and Blue Diamond are both fairly good sprinters but have done little to warrant any strong support.

STEWARDS' CUP

Although Oracle put up a splendid performance at the First Extra and covered the mile in 1:44, she will have a much harder time tomorrow as I feel certain that First Love, Marsh Warbler and Colooma will all be right in it at the finish. In addition, one must seriously consider Gloaming, who has yet to show what she is really capable of doing and to me, only showed a glimpse of her true form when winning the sprint race at the Annual Meeting. I have a feeling that this mare will eventually turn out to be the main opposition to Oracle. The others are not worth worrying much about.

BROKEN HILL HANDICAP

Distant View went under to Sapper at the big meeting and as a consequence will have 7 lbs. pull in weight tomorrow, but I think this will make but slight difference and still look to Mrs. Grassett's nomination to secure another victory. The interest in the race will be furnished by United Express, who also has a 7 lb. weight advantage. This champion sub of the year is undoubtedly a grand racer, but while I anticipate this known doing well, I will rely on Sapper to get the better of him and put the Neenan candidate under for the first time.

Viceroy will have quite a following, his last week's third in the two mile run is no real indication of her present condition. In addition, the light impact of 140 lbs. will be beneficial. Australian Diamond at 137 lbs. will try an other runaway race but I cannot see the other jockeys making the same mistake twice, and will surely give him less rope tomorrow.

Baffin Bay at bottom weight looks tempting but the distance is not suited to his bay's liking. Lancashire Lass is also another bottom weight contender. At the moment I fancy Sapper, with United Express and Distant View next, and Viceroy as the one likely to cause an upset, if any.

HOBBART HANDICAP (FIRST SECTION)

In this six furlong race for "B" Class Australian ponies, Conniber should again be prominent as this chestnut was pulling away from the field at the finish, when she won her race last week. Rowan should be closer up tomorrow as I think the distance will be more to her liking. Many Thanks should do well and is capable of extending the best in this class. Vanity Fair, recently demoted from "A" Class, is better on softer going, but if you are looking for one to beat the favourites, then follow Springhurst or Contact. This race is the first leg of the Daily Double and an even betting one at that.

CANTON HANDICAP

I have not seen Eve of Heaven recently and frankly have no idea of her present condition, but if this Sassoon entrant is anywhere near fit, she stands an excellent chance in this six furlong race.

Velvetlight is quite a danger though I would like to see this stallion over a longer distance. White Diamond is a recognized sprinter, while Charlesber and World Fair View are possibilities, not forgetting Kentucky and Conquer Time. The field is a well matched one and difficult to pick anything outstanding.

HOBBART HANDICAP (SECOND SECTION)

For the second leg of the Daily Double, I like the chances of Devonian and think the six furlong is just right for this pony. A Surprising Time is best over sprints and should therefore offer a strong challenge. National Welfare is inclined to be slightly moody, at the gate, but this bay is also a fine sprinter and should not be neglected. Maple Leaf and Happy Returns are fair outsiders.

FATSHAN HANDICAP (SECOND SECTION)

Another five furlong sprint for Novice Jockeys. In looking over the entries, I like Emergency Unit, Galveston Bay and Just in Time. Have not seen Musketeer of late, but understand he is one of the early gallopers. Take a note of the positions at the gate as this will be quite a factor and may be the one important thing to count. Rose Evelyn is in quite fine condition but this roan is more than a handful for many an experienced rider and I certainly would not feel too confident about a novice handling her.

CANTON HANDICAP (SECOND SECTION)

The final event is another six furlong sprint for "B" Class China ponies and I favour the Marsh candidates, Lilliber and Hughber. Any of these two ponies are capable of winning and it would be interesting to see which one the stable jockey selects for his mount. The danger will come from Humdrum Eye and Bonson. Another fine race with very little in it at the finish. My final selections will appear tomorrow.

Serious Riots Break Out In Yugoslavia

HUGE PROTEST DEMONSTRATION IN MAIN STREET OF BELGRADE

BUDAPEST, March 27 (Reuter)—Yugoslav popular feeling against adherence to the Axis Pact found expression in a huge demonstration of protest in the main street of Belgrade yesterday. Students marched arm in arm, singing national and patriotic songs. There was violent quarrelling among the onlookers. Blows were exchanged and plain clothes police, with whom the city has been filled, immediately intervened and took a number of people into custody.

Even school-children in Belgrade participated in the protests. Hitler's portrait was burned at schools and the portrait of the boy King Peter was framed with red carnations.

More serious rioting also occurred at Banyaluma, where 14 people were killed. Rioting also occurred at Skopje last night and this morning all telephone lines with Belgrade were cut.

Radio Belgrade last night represented the reaction to Yugoslavia's adherence to the Pact as "favourable throughout the country."

This presumably reflects the Yugoslav Government's views.

"SATISFACTION"

"In Slovenia satisfaction is expressed at the fact that Yugoslavia's independence will not be infringed," said the announcer.

"In south Serbia some uneasiness was felt at first but this was dispelled since it was learned that no German troops are to pass through Yugoslav territory."

"In Bosnia there was similar relief and in Sarajevo general content reigned at the assurance that

E-BOAT ATTACK ON CONVOYS

SEVERAL RAIDERS BELIEVED HIT

LONDON, Mar. 27 (Reuter)—British light naval forces operating in the North Sea during the last few days have driven off attacks on convoys by German E-boats.

Several E-boats, states an Admiralty communiqué, were seen to be hit and it is probable that some failed to return to their base.

No damage or casualties was sustained either by British naval ships or merchant vessels in convoys attacked by E-boats.

MESSERSCHMITT DOWNED

The Admiralty announced that a German aircraft was shot down on Tuesday while attempting to attack a convoy in the North Sea.

A German Messerschmitt 110 was hit in the nose by guns of H.M.S. Versatile (Commander J. H. Jauncey, R.N.).

No damage or casualties was sustained either by Versatile or by the merchantmen to which she was acting as escort.

CHINESE FORCES ENTER KAOAN

JAPANESE ABANDON DEAD AND ARMS

KAOAN, March 27 (Central)—Following the recapture of Chuan-kong, Tuen-cheng, Chukiang, Hweilow, Shih-towkai and other strategic points in northern Kiangsi, Chinese forces on Wednesday evening smashed their way into Kaoan and reoccupied the city. The Japanese abandoned more than 2,000 dead and large quantities of arms.

Besides dispatching crack units to pursue the fleeing Japanese, the Chinese authorities are instituting immediate relief and rehabilitation measures in Kaoan.

Meanwhile, as a result of the mop-up operations carried out by the Chinese during the past few days, the Chukiang-Tuehng area is now cleared of Japanese stragglers. The main Chinese force is pushing vigorously toward Nanchang.

Large-Scale Japanese Naval Manoeuvres

CHUNGKING, Mar. 27 (Central)—According to a Shanghai dispatch quoting the Shanghai Evening and Mercury, the Japanese military authorities there recently issued an order forbidding foreigners to book passages on steamships to be lost from Mar. 20 to Apr. 10, while the Japanese Navy, for the first time, is understood to be holding large-scale manoeuvres in the Pacific Naval Base.

MATSUOKA'S MESSAGE TO THE NAZIS

LONDON, Mar. 27 (Reuter)—Japan will not lag behind Germany in courage and determination to establish the world on a basis of the New Order.

This assurance was given by Mr. Matsuoka, the Japanese Foreign Minister, in a message to the German nation last night, according to the German news agency.

Mr. Matsuoka added: "The ideal, which is dear to the Japanese above all things, is embodied in Nakho Ichio, that harmonious world community with room for all nations in which they can realise their wishes and fulfil their missions."

"That ideal," he added, "was the basis of the Tripartite Pact."

DECORATED STREETS

LONDON, March 27 (Reuter)—Herr von Ribbentrop, the Nazi Foreign Minister, and many other Nazi leaders and diplomats, including Yugoslavia's representative, were at the station to welcome Mr. Matsuoka to Berlin.

The station was specially decorated and the military Guard of Honour was mounted.

Herr von Ribbentrop later drove with Mr. Matsuoka through specially decorated streets to the Bellevue Palace which will be Mr. Matsuoka's headquarters during his stay in Berlin.

BRITISH OPPOSITION

LONDON, Mar. 27 (Reuter)—Mr. Matsuoka, the Japanese Foreign Minister, in an interview with the German newspaper Angriff, is reported by the German radio as stating: "Britain and the United States will always oppose Japan's constructive work in the Far East."

"Japan is, therefore, on Germany's side. We want nothing from the Americans and we leave them in peace. They should follow our example and leave us in peace in Asia."

The interview is stated to have taken place in the train taking the Japanese Foreign Minister to Berlin.

LUFTWAFFE ATTACK WEST ENGLAND

LONDON, March 27 (Reuter)—Enemy aircraft, operating singly over the southern half of England, dropped bombs last night. Little damage was done though several houses in West England were destroyed and industrial buildings in two southern towns were damaged. Casualties were nowhere large, though some were killed, according to an Air Ministry communiqué. Two raiders were destroyed.

British Rushing Materials For Next Assault On Keren

LONDON, Mar. 27 (Reuter)—While the R. A. F. and artillery continue to hammer the Italians on peaks around and in Keren itself, supply and maintenance services are rushing material to the front in preparation for the next assault, writes Reuter's Special correspondent on the Keren front.

Despite vigorous Italian counter-attacks the British troops are well able to hold the positions taken during the advance at the end of last week, and patrols are sent each night along the slopes of heights still held by the enemy.

Counter-attacks are becoming increasingly costly to the Italians and the boulder-covered slopes leading to Fort Delogorodoc are strewn with bodies left by the enemy after each of their nine attempts to recapture their positions.

In one of two attacks on Monday night the Italians used three tanks and an armoured car.

One tank is believed to have been knocked out. The others retired.

BRIDGES BOMBED

CAIRO, Mar. 27 (Reuter)—Many raids on enemy positions in support of the successful military operations in Eritrea and Abyssinia were carried out by R.A.F. aircraft on Wednesday.

Keren was again persistently attacked. Several tons of bombs were dropped during the day.

The railway between Addis Ababa and Dire-dawa was heavily and successfully bombed. Trains, railway stations and bridges were damaged. Motor transport on the road was also bombed and machine-gunned.

Free French aircraft raided an enemy encampment 20 miles north of Gondar. Bombs fell amongst the buildings and transports.

TRIPOLI RAIDED

R.A.F. bombers raided Tripoli on the night of March 24 and caused fires, followed by explosions among Government buildings and in the harbour.

Aerodromes at Scarpanto and Calato and shipping at Astropalla Island in the Dodecanese were bombed and machine-gunned yesterday. A number of German aircraft on the ground at Scarpanto were severely damaged. A merchant ship received a direct hit and was machine-gunned. Other damage was caused at Calato.

MALTA ATTACKED

Enemy aircraft, attempted to dive-bomb the harbour at Malta but no serious damage or casualties resulted. Slight damage was done to civilian property.

One Junkers 88 was shot down by anti-aircraft fire and others were damaged.

From all these operations, our aircraft returned safely.

NAZI BLOCKADE EXTENDED TO GREENLAND

Administration Deny German Allegation

WASHINGTON, Mar. 27 (Reuter)—The extension of Germany's counter-blockade to within three miles of Greenland and thus to the threshold of the western hemisphere, was stated by Mr. Sumner Welles, U.S. Under-Secretary of State, at a press conference yesterday to be receiving attention by members of the Administration.

The German explanation that extension was made because United States ships were alleged to be unloading supplies there for trans-shipment to Britain, is contested by members of the U.S. Maritime Commission.

They declare no American ships are sailing to Iceland and the only ships plying between the United States and Iceland are said to be six small cargo-boats under the Iceland flag with supplies for Iceland.

Mr. Sumner Welles also announced that the State Department had cabled Admiral Leahy, Ambassador to Vichy, for a complete report on the new food agreement reported to have been reached between occupied and unoccupied France.

GOVERNMENT SEAT TRANSFERRED

VICHY, Mar. 27 (Reuter)—The capital of Lithuania is to be transferred from Kaunas to Jilne (Vila) according to a message from Moscow to the Vichy news agency.

This has been decided by the Council of Commissioners of the people of Lithuania. The transfer will be completed by Sept. 1.

"If such an agreement is concluded, the British Government is bound to point out that in the light of recent history, the Yugoslav people will almost certainly be drawn more deeply into that system as time goes on."

The history of the past 18 months has shown how little Germany scruples to honour the assurances that she gives."

K.R.A. Protest Against Abolishing Maternity Wards At Kowloon Hospital

The protest against the abolishing of maternity wards for first and second class patients at Kowloon Hospital was the chief subject of discussion when the new General Committee of the Kowloon Residents' Association met recently in St. Andrew's Hall.

Those present were: Mr. D. W. Munton, President; Lt.-Col. E. D. Matthews, Vice-President; Mr. F. C. Mow Fung Hon. Secretary; Mr. H. Braga, Hon. Mr. Leo d'Almada e Castro, Jr., Miss E. M. Gibbins, Mr. L. R. Idefonso, Dr. S. G. Kirby-Gomes, Mr. Lam Ming-fan, Major C. M. Manners, Mr. R. Pestonji, Dr. A. M. Rodrigues, Rev. H. D. Rosenthal, Mr. R. J. Shirley, Mr. D. O. Silver, Dr. J. T. Smalley, Mr. C. E. Terry, Mr. B. Wylie and Mr. Yeung Tun Tat. Apologies for absence were received from Mr. H. Wong, Mrs. H. F. Phillips, Mr. A. da Silva and Rev. H. A. Wittenbach.

Among the items referred to the Sub-Committees for investigation and report, were the matters brought up at the annual general meeting. These included the need for steps to be taken which would tend to greater safety from fire with regard to the old type of tenement houses, the feasibility of installing the hush sanitary system in every house in Kowloon, the alleged encroachment of factories in residential areas, the unsuitable location of certain offensive trades, and the allegation that some of the Air Raid shelters had not been properly constructed.

Some traffic complaints were also mentioned, and were handed over to the Sub-Committee concerned to be dealt with.

MATERNITY WARDS

One of the questions brought up at the annual meeting, however, was discussed forthwith and received considerable attention. This was the matter of the maternity wards for first and second class patients in the Kowloon Hospital, where private medical practitioners have hitherto been allowed to attend their own patients, being temporarily abolished.

Subsequent to the annual meeting, a letter was received from the Hon. Director of Medical Services, in which he explained that the proposal was in connection with the better utilisation of hospital facilities at that Hospital during the period of emergency and the continuance of the compulsory evacuation scheme. The very few maternity cases, which have been accommodated in these private wards since the evacuation, could be admitted to equally satisfactory, not superior, accommodation in the Queen Mary Hospital, one ward being reserved for the very few emergencies likely to occur.

A REAL NEED

In the course of the discussion it was pointed out that these eight private wards for maternity cases have proved a boon to many a Kowloon mother and child during the past seven or eight years, and Government long ago recognised that there was a real need for granting the facility attached to them, that of permitting the patient's own doctor attending her throughout her confinement. It was only to be expected that fewer maternity cases have been accommodated in these wards since the evacuation of British women in July last, but everyone hopes that this evacuation will be temporary, and nobody can say how soon these women of Kowloon will be back in their homes again.

It was the general opinion at the Committee meeting that it is unwise and unjustifiable to make any drastic change regarding these wards, and, in any case, the reservation of one ward only for emergency cases is far from adequate, even during the present evacuation, as there are still a very large number of women, including Chinese, who have not been evacuated, and who can afford to and would avail themselves of the facilities referred to.

NEGLECTIBLE RELIEF

The total number of beds contained in all these private maternity wards is eight, and it is obvious that any relief of the congestion in other wards, which the use of any or all of them could afford, is negligible.

It was suggested that instead of the maternity patients being sent to the Queen Mary Hospital, it would be more logical to send the excess patients in the women's general wards over there. These latter cases could travel to Queen Mary Hospital with little risk and at no extra expense to themselves; on the other hand, the removal of expectant mothers, who can take no risks, may in some cases have to be carried out well in advance of the expected date of delivery, and would thus entail very great expense. Nor would it be easy for private practitioners, resident in Kowloon, to be present at the Queen Mary Hospital when their patients most needed their services. Some practicable suggestions for coping with the congestion in the female general wards were also mentioned.

It was unanimously decided by the General Committee that, as the advantages (if any) to be gained by carrying out the proposal of the Hon. Director of Medical Services, are so out of proportion to the disadvantages and possible dangers involved, not to mention the great resentment, which would be felt by Kowloon residents, representations should be made to him urging that he would give the matter further careful consideration.

ROUND THE POLICE COURTS

AT CENTRAL

POSSESSION OF WARD

Pleading ignorance of the regulations, Ng Fung-shall, 57, charged with failing to report the possession of a 19-year-old ward named Wai Sau-chan, alias Ng Mei-chan, before Sept. 24, 1938, was fined $20 by Mr. G. T. Lowry yesterday.

Insp. H.W. Fraser of the S.C.A. said that the girl, a dance hostess, came to the S.C.A. on March 25, stating that she wanted to be freed from defendant, who was her adopted father, because of the latter's violent temper.

According to her, Insp. Fraser said, she was sold to defendant by her grandmother in 1927 for $500 and was brought here on August 15, 1937.

CASE REMANDED

Au Kong, 23, unemployed, was remanded by Mr. Lowry yesterday for 24 hours on a charge of selling ice cream at Hollywood Road, near Po Yan Street, on March 25, without permission from the Urban Council, which offence is a breach of the Cholera Regulations.

DRUG TRAFFICKING

Charged with unlawful possession of 2,000 Leroth pills at Praya West off Shaukiwan Theatre on March 28, Wong Chi, 29, unemployed, of No. 147, Nam On Fong, first floor, was remanded for a week by Major A.N. Macfadyen yesterday.

Sgt. W. L. Kinloch is in charge of the case.

FALSE PRETENCES

Sentence of two months' hard labour was imposed by Major Macfadyen yesterday on Chung Lap-hing, 38, travelling trader, of No. 51, Sai Yeung Choi Street, second floor, charged with stealing money and articles to the value of $4.05 by false pretences. Defendant was also ordered to repay complainant the sum of $54.05 or serve a further three months.

Sgt. Kinloch was in charge of the prosecution.

HEARING FIXED

Hearing of the case in which Tong Tuk-wah, 42, is charged with larceny of $4,000 from the Fook Cheung Wo firm, of which he was a partner, was fixed for April 18 at 11 a.m. by Mr. Lowry yesterday.

Defendant will be represented by the Hon. Mr. Leo d'Almada, while Mr. M. A. da Silva is appearing for the prosecution and Det.-Sgt. W. Summers for the Police.

DAIRY FARM THEFT

Chow Wing-chuen, 34, a former employee of the East Point Branch of the Dairy Farm, was sentenced to two months' hard labour by Mr. Sheldon yesterday for stealing approximately $300 worth of fillet beef from the Company between March 1 and Aug. 31 last year.

Mr. W. A. Mackinlay, assisted by Det.-Sgt. J. Bentley, was for the prosecution, while defendant was represented by Mr. C. A. Sutherland, who pleaded guilty.

It was stated that defendant was employed by the Company as a clerk. It was alleged that from time to time defendant requested certain of the coolies there in assisting to take goods out of the cold storage during tiffin hour, giving the reason that they were required by a compradore shop. These goods were put on a trolley and pushed down to the waterfront, where they were taken on board a waiting sampan.

AT KOWLOON

SNATCHER IMPRISONED

Six weeks' hard labour was imposed by Mr. H. C. Macnamara yesterday on Lau Shing, 17, for snatching a handbag from a married woman, Chung Ki at Gordon Road, near Shanghai Street.

It was stated that about 4.10 p.m. on Wednesday Chy was walking alone Gordon Road when defendant and six others came up and one of them "knocked down" the handbag from complainant's hand. Defendant picked it up and ran.

Amateurish And Clumsy

EXTORTION CASE CONCLUDES

Judgment was delivered by Mr. H. G. Sheldon at the Central Magistracy yesterday in the case in which Pun Man-cheuk, 27, and Cheung Shu, 44, were charged with threatening Wong Kwai, 57, master of the Ying Fat Loong, No. 25, Connaught Road West, with intent to cause him to pay $3,000.

First defendant was fined $250 or two months' hard labour, while second defendant was discharged.

The Hon. Mr. Leo d'Almada, Jr., instructed by Mr. F. X. d'Almada, represented both defendants, while the prosecution was conducted by Mr. M. A. da Silva, Det.-Sgt. J. Bentley was present for the Police.

THE JUDGMENT

In the course of his judgment, Mr. Sheldon said:

"In this case, in my opinion, the evidence has brought home the fact that first defendant did on Dec. 6 last, in an amateurish and clumsy manner, attempt to obtain $3,000 from complainant."

"I reject the evidence put up by first defendant. I do not believe Mr. Wong has ever had anything to do with him whatsoever. Equally I disbelieve the second theory of the defence that defendant mistook Mr. Wong for someone whom he had those dealings."

As regards second defendant, if he took part in this matter at all, it was a minor part and the evidence against him being uncorroborated, I do not think it safe to convict."

black-out exercises were heard before Mr. Macnamara yesterday.

All accused were summoned for failing to observe lights properly. Fines ranging from $2 to $10 were imposed.

FIREWOOD DEALERS FINED

Summoned for selling firewood at a price higher than that fixed by the Government, Chan Lo-chuen, of a firewood shop at Canton Road was fined $40 by Mr. Macnamara yesterday.

AID FOR CHINA

IN VIEW of President Roosevelt's sweeping action to help the democracies—and in naming those meriting such help he emphasised China—the report which Mr. Laughlin Currie, the President's representative who made a visit to Chungking for the sole purpose of studying the Chinese Government's financial position, has now presented, is of the greatest interest. Although Mr. Currie gave no hint before he left China of what impressions he had formed from his visit, it was clear, even at that time, that there was no doubt in his mind of the righteousness of the cause for which she was fighting and the few details of his report which he made to the President have confirmed that view. In short, his recommendations took the form of a two-point plan to supply China's requirements and it is a tribute to the far-sightedness and the vision which he displayed during his stay in China's wartime capital that he was able to gauge so well that, while Japan's aggression was nearing the point of exhaustion, the needs of the Chinese, which he termed "magnificently brief," could best be reinforced by the supply of a number of flying fortresses, which, in Mr. Currie's opinion, would enable China to deal a final and shattering blow to Japan's war effort.

THIS VIEW is, in itself, evidence of the confidence of the American people not only in the justice of China's cause and of her ability to fight back untiringly until the Japanese are driven from her territories, but that the United States, as the arsenal of democracy, recognises that the Chinese are themselves striking a blow for that cause of securing liberty for the whole world and for which the entire resources of America have now been mobilised in order that this object may be achieved with her help. China, therefore, like Britain and her allies, can now face the trials that lie ahead of her with even greater confidence than that which so impressed Mr. Currie. With his usual ability to grasp the value of the report which his representative has brought back, President Roosevelt will see to it that China's requirements are fully met.

of various ramps which are being permitted to flourish in the Colony and which drastic action taken in time might well have prevented. Some form of action, belated though it has been, is now being set in operation to curb the more serious of these illegal activities—small mercies for which the community is indeed truly thankful.

HAVING made this start, it is now not too much to hope that the Government will set about using the big stick to check the rent racket, details of which appeared in yesterday's issue of this paper and which is fast spreading to practically every Chinese-owned property in Hongkong. That the Government is aware, to some extent of the particularly abnoxious forms of squeeze which landlords have, for some years been imposing on their tenants, is clear from the fact that an ordinance to prevent tenants being evicted on unreasonable grounds was introduced and has met with some measure of success. But the continued levy of what is blandly called "tea money" from intending tenants is surely a flagrant breach of the law. It is impossible to see how unscrupulous landlords can be allowed to make this demand on people as a condition to letting their property, particularly when the demand made amounts to two or three months rent to which he is not entitled. Is there any reason why this iniquitous demand, with its many ramifications of commissions and tips, cannot be made a punishable offence?

RENT RACKET

COMMENTING in these columns yesterday on the laissez faire attitude which the people and the Government in this Colony have adopted towards alleviating the appalling social conditions which prevail here, we stated that in several instances delayed action by official quarters to prevent the burden of hardship which the poorer working classes are enduring, being increased was a contributory factor to the prevailing poverty and misery in the city. Support for this contention has been furnished by the exposure by members of the staff of this paper

LONDON NEWS LETTER:

MOVE TO CONCENTRATE PRODUCTION IN BRITAIN: BUDGET PROBLEMS

"It is a commonplace nowadays to say that war is a young man's job. It is held that though Napoleon may have fought his campaigns with veterans the instruments of modern war are for the young man," said SIR FREDERICK WHYTE, K.C.S.I., and former Political Adviser to the Chinese National Government, when he broadcast from London on Wednesday night.

Sir Frederick said that after listening to two speeches which were made this week by Sir Archibald Sinclair and Lord Beaverbrook, two ministers most concerned with Britain's air war, one could not help feeling that both of them had the spirit of younger men, in spite of their years.

TRIBUTE TO SCIENTISTS

Lord Beaverbrook was past sixty, but there were many men still in the flower of youth who did not possess his energy. A feature of his speech was not so much his tribute to the young men who were fighting Britain's air battle so gallantly, but his pointed reminder of the work done by men whose names never appear in the press and whose work would have passed unnoticed if he had not spoken of them and it was meant to give some publicity from the men of the air to the men of science.

"This shows that our air war is not only being carried on by young men," said Sir Frederick, "and the debate in Parliament brings the same reminder as far as the National Service Bill is concerned. This bill has the same claim on man-power as the fighting services now possess, but civil defence will now rank with the army navy and air force as national service."

CIVIL NEEDS

Sir Frederick stated that the only way to supply the needs of civil defence was to make it an obligation on war service as for others. There were thus two measures now which might raise a debate in the House of Commons soon—one was the budget and the other was the concentration of production.

Referring to the bill for the concentration of production, Sir Frederick said it was a common-sense measure, but it was sure to set critical tongues wagging in the House of Commons.

The move to bring about concentration of production arose from two causes—the withdrawal of labour from the civil or fighting services for factories and the fact that these factories found their markets reduced by rationing or reduced output.

"There are hundreds of factories not working today and not using all their plant," went on Sir Frederick. "Those which were normally making fabrics for civil clothes are now making uniforms, but there are still some factories which are employed on civil work and which are short of work."

ECONOMICAL BASIS

"There is, therefore, a reason for concentration of these needs and it means that others will be able to work on the best economical basis. We can answer our critics best by saying that those factories not needed for civil work can be used for war production, because though many of them are unsuited for war production they can be readily adapted to it."

"This concentration of war production must take place," continued Sir Frederick. "Some say that the plan is as bad as Nazi regimentation itself and others that it is the thin end of the wedge of socialism."

Sir Frederick declared that it must not be forgotten that the war was changing the average life of the country. The average man took these changes in his stride and he saw nothing wrong in it. There would, however, be many smags to be overcome before this new move could be set going.

THE BUDGET

Sir Frederick next referred to the coming budget. The difficulty about this, he said, was that it was one measure that went before the House and about which nothing was known before-hand.

"You know what the Chancellor's problem is," said Sir Frederick. "It is to balance his income and expenditure by a form of economy called taxation and in that other form which is money loaned to the Government."

"What the ordinary man wants to know is how far the national income has increased—and it has increased—and whether the Chancellor will try to tax those who receive the most of this increase."

"Thus there seems to be a new reservoir of money into which the Chancellor can dip his budget. In every railway carriage today you hear people say 'If I am Sir Kingsley Wood I would take a rake off from wages,' but the Treasury holds that it is not always wise to collect small sums from the people. There is no likelihood therefore of any further taxation."

"In February we saved and loaned to the Government about £22,000,000, and about the same amount in taxation was paid to the Treasury. Even when these two sums were added together, they only paid for about five days of the war out of seven, leaving expenditure of the other two days to be met somehow."

"Many other governments in such a case would have resorted to turning out more and more paper money, but that would be inflation and that is one thing which we are trying to avoid."

A POSTSCRIPT

"And now, in a postscript I turn from the Chancellor's grim task of lightening our pockets to something lighter. The Minister of Transport was recently asked in the House of Commons why certain railway carriages were marked not for public use."

"The Minister replied, amidst much laughter, from members, that it covered cases of broken windows, infectious diseases, corpses, high service officials, lunatics, convicts and Cabinet Ministers!"

"I have in bygone days had experience of parrying with Ministers and I can guess what a kick some official must have got out of that answer which places in one category lunatics, convicts and Cabinet Ministers!"

PRETTY CHINESE WEDDING AT ST. PAUL'S

Mr. L. C. Lau and Miss W. I. Fok

A pretty wedding took place at St. Paul's Church yesterday afternoon when Miss Fok Woon-yu, eleventh daughter of the late Mr. Fok Chi-ting and Mrs. Fok of No. 82, Robinson Road, became the bride of Mr. Lau Lung-cheong, second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lau Wing of No. 96, Causeway Bay, Hongkong.

The ceremony was officiated by Rev. Paul S. F. T'so and the St. Paul's girls' choir were in attendance.

The bride looked charming on the arm of her brother Mr. Fok Po-chol (assistant manager of the Bank of Canton) in a gown of white french satin, cut on a princess line with a high neck and long tight sleeves. Instead of the conventional orange blossoms for her head she wore a halo made of satin which held her long tulle veil in place, and carried a sheaf of arm lilies and maiden-hair fern.

THE BRIDESMAIDS

The bridesmaids Misses Elsie Wong and Yu Kwai-tsu wore frocks of pink taffeta cut with a coat effect with a full flare skirt and short puff sleeves and carried sheaves of pink roses and mauve larkspur.

Little Miss Fok Wun-yu, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and wore a rose taffeta frock. Master Wei was pageboy and wore a suit of black chiffon velvet with a white satin blouse.

The bridegroom who is connected with the Central Bank of China was attended by Messrs. David K. I. Lau and Robert K. C. Wu.

The reception was held at the Hongkong Hotel where many friends gathered to congratulate the newly-weds. A dinner took place at the Kam Loong Restaurant last night.

The honeymoon is to be spent in Manila.

CHINESE PRESS REVIEWED

Registered Chinese papers published in China number 555, according to Mr. Peng Keh-chen, Director of the News Section of the Central Publicity Board.

These exclude those papers published by various military units, schools and other organisations which have a limited circulation.

Hunan claims the largest number of registered papers, being 64. Szechwan ranks second with 56 and Chekiang occupies the third place with 50. Sinkiang, Chinghai (Kokonor) and Ninghsia have each only one paper. Chungking, the wartime capital, has 11.

The papers are either printed in type, or lithographed or mimeographed. Owing to the shortage of imported newsprint, native newsprint is now used by most of the papers.

In places where there are no regular papers daily news broadcast by the Central News Agency are picked up by provincial or hsin radio stations, lithographed or mimeographed and distributed. Altogether 212 radio stations scattered in the provinces of Szechwan, Honan, Kwelchow, Sinking, Hunan, Kiangsi, Anhwei, Fukien, Chekiang, Kansu, Shantung, Yunnan, Hupeh, Kwangtung, Hopei, Shanai, Shensi, Ninghsia, Chinghai and Suiyuan, are undertaking this task.

There are about 110 war correspondents in various war zones and enemy "occupied" areas. They perform their duties often amidst great danger. (Central News).

CAPT. CYRIL FALLS ON THE PRESENT STRATEGIC POSITION IN PACIFIC

The present strategic position in the Pacific Ocean was the subject of an interesting broadcast talk by CAPTAIN CYRIL FALLS, military correspondent of THE TIMES, from London yesterday. He referred to the latest developments insofar as they concerned Britain, Japan, the United States and the Dutch East Indies.

"On Monday last," said roughly an equilateral triangle is Midway and then up again north in United States Alaskan territory. Like a chess board.

CONSIDERABLE FORCES

"This is the latest of a series of landings which they have made along the coast of South China. I cannot give you the exact dispositions of the Japanese army in South China, but it is known that they have considerable forces in that area and also in Hainan. They also have aircraft on Hainan and there are reports that a number of airfields there have been recently established. They also have a large number of troops at Formosa.

"Further developments in the Pacific are the dispute between Thailand and Indo-China, where Japan has assumed the part of mediator, the strengthening of the garrison at Singapore by Australian troops, the position of the rich Dutch East Indies, which adheres to the Queen of the Netherlands, the increased fortifications of United States bases in the Pacific and the visit of the Japanese Foreign Minister, Mr. Matsuo, to Berlin."

AUSTRALIA AND SINGAPORE

Capt. Falls then went on to talk about Australia and its relation to Singapore. Australia, he said, had the absolute right to make what disposal of her forces she wished. The War Office could say that they would like something of the other done with her troops, but the Australian Government always had the last say in the matter.

"It shows the common sense of the Australians that they have now been able to send their forces to defend Singapore," said Capt. Falls. "This same attitude was shown in the last war too when she sent her forces to defend the Suez Canal, though her interests were more important there than at Singapore."

"Singapore straddles the trade and shipping route to the East and it is the most strongly fortified colonial naval base in the world. It has received powerful reinforcements both in the air and the ground since this war began and the first and most obvious thing one notices in the manner in which it is studded with islands."

STRATEGIC SIGNIFICANCE

"These islands have always had a strategic significance, but to-day, with long-range aircraft playing their part, their importance has increased. If you want to appreciate this you should get a map showing which of these islands are fortified and being used as air and naval bases or both. This will give you interesting food for thought."

Capt. Falls then went on to declare that from the west coast of the United States there was a long line of fortified bases stretching across the Pacific. The first was at Honolulu, the next at Wake Island, then at Guam and finally at Manila and Manila was only about 600 miles from Hongkong.

"This single line of bases does not represent the whole story," said Capt. Falls. "Along to the north of these and forming

FUNERAL OF P.C.

A large gathering of members of the Police Force attended the funeral service, held yesterday afternoon, of P. C. D187, Wang Tsh-shing, aged 47, attached to Gough Hill Police Station, who died on Monday while in the performance of his duty.

The remains will be sent to his native country, Weihaiwei, Shanghai.

Besides the chief mourners, those present included the Hon. Commissioner of Police, Mr. W. P. Thompson, Mr. E. C. Luscombe, Mr. W. R. Chester-Woods, Chief Det. Insp. M. Murphy, Inspectors J. R. McWalter, L. R. Whant and F. J. B. Tuckett, Principal Chinese Detective Chu Heung and many others.

There was a profusion of wreaths and scrolls.

Lord Halifax & Britain's Unbeatable Combination

NEW YORK, Mar. 27 (Reuter).—Britain would fight for 20 years if necessary, declared Lord Halifax at a press conference yesterday. He gave it as his "deliberate conviction" that the combination of military, naval and air power and blockade would give Britain victory over the Nazis and their Axis partners.

The duration of the war would depend on the speed of American help.

Referring to the post-war world, Lord Halifax said that Britain did not want a vindictive peace but she was going to see that steps were taken to ensure that the world should not see a repetition of the present situation at the hands of Germany.

BRITISH BOMBER EXPLOITS

Nazi Convoy Attacked Off Dutch Coast

LONDON, Mar. 27 (Reuter).—Some of the exploits of aircraft of the Bomber and Coastal Commands in attacks on enemy shipping are revealed in an Air Ministry communique.

A small enemy convoy was intercepted and bombed on Wednesday off the Dutch coast by Bomber Command aircraft. In another attack off Ameland, an anti-aircraft ship was damaged and near Borkum, a naval patrol was bombed.

On Tuesday coastal Command aircraft attacked and scattered several enemy minesweepers. A pilot of the Coastal Command sank an enemy supply ship.

From these operations, concludes the communique, one aircraft is missing.

NO OVERSEAS EXPEDITIONS FOR S.A. TROOPS

CAPETOWN, Mar. 27 (Reuter).—The question of the use of South African troops outside Africa was raised in the House of Assembly yesterday.

General Jan Smuts, the Premier, stated that the Government intended to abide strictly by the decision taken by Parliament at the beginning of the war against overseas expeditions. If circumstances arose which, in the opinion of the Government, made it necessary to send troops outside the African continent, Parliament would be summoned.

General Smuts stated that the Government was entitled to use its troops in any part of Africa and would do so if necessary.

He added that no South African troops were at present fighting in Greece or anywhere outside Africa.

Direct Warning By Donovan

Are we prepared to take the chance? There is danger in whatever we do. We must recognize that danger of attack exists.

In the passage of the Lease and Lend Bill alone, we have done two things which could be considered acts of war. One was to authorize the building of fighting ships to be turned over to England and the other was provision for refitting British ships in American ship yards.

"Germany has ignored these acts as she has many others in the past year-and-a-half, but we must not delude ourselves into thinking that she had not scored them up against us and we will have to pay for it."

ONE CHOICE

"One choice for the American people is whether or not they would resist Hitler. If they chose to resist, they must decide in time while it is still possible to do so, and others still alive to stand beside them."

He warned against both over-estimating and underestimating the power of the German military machine, and said: "That would be a mistake too. Her gains have

NAVY DETERMINED TO WIN SENIOR SHIELD Draw With Strong Sing Tao Team In Practice Match

Everything indicates that the ROYAL NAVY football team are determined to win the Senior Shield this season as can be seen by the hard practice they have had. In one such match yesterday they drew with a strong Sing Tao eleven in a friendly match at Causeway Bay.

The Navy will be considerably strengthened, it is learned. If several new players, reputed to be very good, are signed up before the Shield match is played.

Sing Tao, fresh from their laurels in Manila, were, as stated, held to a draw and if it had not been for the injury to Britt, who sustained a fractured knee in the second half, when Navy were leading by three goals to one, the final score would have been in the sailors' favour. The Chinese, however, added two quick goals to force a draw.

GOOD DEFENCE
The defence of the Navy was again outstanding. O'Regan and Roughley were very prominent in their clearing and anticipation, while the half-backs were everywhere to help both in attack and defence.

Hendy, prolific Navy goal-scorer, had the full attention of the Sing Tao defence, as a result of which the goals came from the wingers, Wharmby (2) and Hawkins (1).

Kwok Ying-ki was the most outstanding player for Sing Tao, while Lai Shiu-wing and Ip Pak-wah were the best of the forwards.

Lai Shiu-wing (2) and Kwok Ying-ki scored for Sing Tao.

ROYAL NAVY: Doherty, Roughley, O'Regan, Britt, Hazard, Layne, Wharmby, Le Page, Hendy, Barber and Hawkins.

SING TAO: Chu Shu-hang, Hau Yung-sang, Mak Shu-hon, Tam Chun-fai, Soong Ling-sing, Kam Ka-pui, Yeung Shiu-yick, Tung Kwong-sum, Kwok Ying-ki, Lai Shiu-wing and Ip Pak-wah.

JUNIOR GAME

Prior to the senior match, the Royal Navy second string lost to 7th R.A. by three goals to nil. Berkely, Giblin and McEwan scored for the winners. For Navy, Paul was the best.

PRINCE EDWARD IS NOT IN U.S.

Walter Winchell, New York columnist, said recently that the children of the Duke of Kent are staying in the name of Smilin' with Mr. J. P. Morgan on his estate outside New York.

This report was authoritatively denied in official quarters in London.

His Excellency Sir Archibald Clark Kerr was the guest of honour at the R.A.F. luncheon held in the Dome, Shanghai, on Mar. 14, being accompanied by Mr. John Alexander, H. M. Press Attaché. Mr. V. J. B. Holland, Acting President of the Association, welcomed them on behalf of the gathering, remarking that the ambassador had always been a good friend to the club, rarely failing to visit it at least once during his stays in Shanghai.

OPEN TENNIS DOUBLES

JAPANESE PAIR DEFEATED

As expected the Open Doubles tennis match between George Choa and A. V. Remedios and O. Umetani and T. Imura yesterday provided some very bright play, the former pair winning 6-3, 4-6, 6-3.

There were some fine rallies in which both sides came off with equal honours.

Both the first and second sets were closely fought out but the third set was something of an anti-climax.

In the Open Singles, R. E. Guest succumbed to the stylish player, Pang Oi-lam by 6-3, 6-1.

Other results were as follows: Open Singles: Paul Kong beat Fung Yee-pui 8-1, 6-1; I. M. A. Razack beat S. Y. Tong 6-3, 6-1.

CLUB MATCHES

Championship: F. W. Carter beat M. A. de Haan 6-1, 6-0.

H'Cap Singles: A. K. Mackenzie beat H. E. Waller 6-2, 6-1.

Mixed Doubles: C. H. R. Oxlade and Miss Pritchard beat F. D. Hunter and Mrs. G. Campbell 6-3, 6-3; J. S. Theobald and Miss D. Eardley beat E. H. Brazel and Miss M. Riddle 6-2, 6-1.

IMMIGRATION OFFICE BOY CHARGED

COLLECTED $25 ON STOLEN RECEIPT

A messenger of the Immigration Office was charged before Mr. G. T. Lowry at the Central Magistracy yesterday with obtaining money by false pretences.

Defendant was Ng Chi-hon, 27, who was alleged to have obtained $25 on Mar. 4 from a shroff of the Immigration Office by virtue of a deposit receipt in the name of one Ho Kiu, by falsely pretending that he was the depositor.

Det. Sub- Insp. J. O'Donovan said that defendant had been employed since Nov. last. On Mar. 3 a deposit receipt was reported stolen and on the following day defendant presented it at the counter and cashed it, saying that he was the depositor.

GUILTY PLEA

Defendant pleaded guilty and said that he did it because his mother was sick at that time and he needed some money to buy medicine for her.

After hearing the case, Mr. Lowry ordered defendant to be remanded for seven days to see whether he could make restitution.

S'HAU-NANKING RAILWAYS

Position Of British Queried In Commons

LONDON, Mar. 27 (Reuter).—In the House of Commons yesterday, Sir John Wardlaw-Milne asked what provision had been made to protect British bond-holders of the Shanghai-Nanking and the Tientsin-Pukow Railways in view of the fact that the concerns were built with British money and are now controlled by a Japanese company with revenues of a million yen a month.

Mr. R. A. Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, replied that the British Government had repeatedly made representations in respect of both railways and requesting that an arrangement should be made to meet the obligations of British bond-holders and allow the British railway staff to function in accordance with the provision of the loan agreements. "I regret that no satisfaction has yet been received," added Mr. Butler.

DEAD BABY

REPORTED ARREST OF U.S. MARINE IN SHANGHAI

The mystery surrounding the discovery of the body of a fifteen-month old baby in the compound of the Shanghai Jewish School in Seymour Road was being investigated by the United States Consular authorities, on Mar. 14, reports the North China Daily News. It could not be ascertained, however, if anyone had been arrested in connexion with the affair.

ARREST REPORT

According to a report, the body was found at 4.20 a.m. by two Chinese watchmen, one employed by the school, and the other at Pacific Gardens. It was further stated that American Marine authorities had arrested a Marine private on suspicion of having left the body in the compound.

The report went on to state that the Pacific Gardens watchman saw a Marine leave house No. 4 with a bundle in his hands. The Chinese followed the man saw him enter the school premises. He came out soon after with the bundle still in his hands.

OVER THE WALL

The watchman then saw the Marine throw it over the wall into the school compound and then proceed north, along Seymour Road.

As soon as the Marine had left, the watchman called his colleague at the Jewish School and together they searched the compound, finding the bundle and in it, a body of a dead foreign child.

The autopsy on the body was held on Monday morning, it was reported. The dead child's mother is at present at the Country Hospital and has not been told of its death.

CHESS RESULTS

In the Junior Chess Championship yesterday J. Getfald beat V. V. Kolachoff and E. M. Petrov beat W. Lee.

AMOY SITUATION AND COMMONS

Information Sought On Jap. Demands

LONDON, March 27 (Reuter).—In the House of Commons yesterday, Mr. H. I. Hannah asked for information regarding Japanese demands in Amoy and whether steps were taken to support the foreign administration against demands calculated to subject the settlement to Japanese domination.

Mr. R. A. Butler, replied that the Japanese Consul-General in Amoy presented four requests on January 20, three of which presented no difficulty but the fourth was for the immediate appointment of six Japanese sergeants to the police force.

NO QUORUM

Consequently three non-Japanese members of the Council resigned, leaving it with no quorum.

Since then the Council's functions had been carried on by the Consular Body.

Negotiations had been proceeding between the Japanese Consul-General and the British Consul-General in the capacity of senior Consul.

Mr. Hannah asked: "Isn't the present position extremely unsatisfactory?"

No answer was given.

Industrial Machines And Output

Another 10,558 tons of industrial equipment were moved into Free China last year. Together with the 104,037 tons evacuated from the coastal areas and along the Yangtze during the two previous years, the total amount of productive machines thus far safely transported to the interior weight 116,595 tons.

Factories in Free China posted another record last year by turning out $3,400,000,000 worth of industrial products. This marked a great increase over the $1,400,000,000 of 1939 and $700,000,000 in 1938.

Major Manners' Letter To Hon. Mr. J. J. Paterson

No person from the Secretariat ever entered by door—I cannot contradict that.

The Accountant-General was to his mind, said Mr. Smith, a qualified person to give a report.

Mr. Forrest: The Accountant-
General stated he could take no action. But does not a report call for action?

Mr. Smith: Yes. Action was taken very shortly after. Mr.
Pudney's report was to call in Mr.
Taylor.

Mr. Forrest: That was action taken by myself not taken by the Secretariat.

EXTRA STAFF

Mr. Smith: I think we did our best to get you extra staff but it was very difficult at that time. The War Taxation Department had taken the cream of the other departments.

Asked whether the Supreme Court or the Post Office were more in need of Senior Clerical and Accounting Staff men than the Immigration Office, Mr. Smith said he found it hard to answer the question. The allotments to any department was largely in the hands of the Principal Assistant Colonial Secretary and were given final approval by Mr. Smith.

Mr. Smith agreed at that time no accountant was available.

Mr. Forrest: You first mentioned the possibility of a public enquiry to me on a Friday afternoon.

Mr. Smith: Was that before you yourself suggested it?

Mr. Forrest: I think that was the first intimation. I sent you a semi-official letter in which I asked you to do nothing to prevent such an enquiry.

KOBZA AGREEMENT

Replying to the Chairman, Mr.
Smith said he recollected being at Government House in the presence of His Excellency the Acting Governor and Mr. Forrest but he could not recollect every word that was spoken as he (Mr. Smith) had had many interviews that day.

"We did discuss this Kobza agreement. I told His Excellency that when the Immigration Office first started Kobza was given. I think very early on, a room in the neighbourhood or in the same building," said Mr. Smith. "I mentioned to His Excellency that in similar departments, such as the Imports and Exports, I knew that it was quite a regular thing for the department to have agents set up for filling in forms. I thought that something of that sort would probably be necessary as regards these Immigration forms."

Mr. Forrest explained that that was at a later meeting. When he attempted to work on the decision of the Executive Council, which was that monopolies be given by tender to selected agents on short term contracts, he (Mr.
Forrest) found it got him deeper and deeper into the bog. On Jan.
9, through Mr. Smith, he sought a further interview with His Excellency.

WHAT THOUGHT FIT

Mr. Forrest went on to say that he thought His Excellency's decision was that there was nothing in the Executive Council's decision prejudicing him (Mr. Forrest) from doing what he thought fit.

Mr. Smith: I would not like to contradict that. As long as other agents were to have equal right to take photos and fill in forms.

Mr. Drummond said he rather gathered the impression that the meeting at Government House referred to by Mr. Forrest varied very much from the Executive Council's decision.

The Chairman: By the agreement with Kobza he was put in a position whereby the other agents could only come to the Immigration Office through him.

Mr. Smith: I can say certainly that that was never contemplated. I might add that this agreement which Kobza signed was only seen by me at a very late stage. He brought it up to my office one evening and showed me the agreement which was signed. I was taken completely by surprise because I remember quarrying the witness.

Replying to the Chairman, Mr.
Smith said that it was most certainly the usual practice. If the Head of a Department wished to enter into a contract, to submit the terms of the agreement to the Crown Solicitor.

MORNING HEARING

At the commencement of yesterday morning's sitting, Mr. Mc-Clatchie, officer-in-charge of Current Accounts Department of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, testified to the correctness of Mr.
Kobza's statement, made on Wednesday, that he originally opened the new account with the Hongkong Bank under the name of General Agency of the Immigration Office and that the name was changed by Mr. McClatchie to Kobza Art Studio Account No. 2.
Addressing the Commission, Mr.
Kobza said that on the previous day he said that he was not in a position to put up security but that he was now in possession of a cheque for $3,000 as evidence of good faith. This cheque he handed to the Chairman.

Major C. M. Manners, Secretary and Manager of the Hongkong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown Co.
Ltd., identified a letter which he addressed to the Hon. Mr. J. J.
Paterson, Chairman of the firm, in which he stated:

Dear Mr. Paterson, I have to report that on the arrival of the "President Monroe" yesterday I was on the wharf and after she tied up I went aboard.

The Immigration Officer in charge was a Mr. Burnie. Shortly after arrival the Chief Immigration Officer, Mr. Forrest, came aboard apparently in a very unpleasant humour. I saw nothing of the examination of passengers in the lounge but I heard several of them make derogatory remarks regarding the manners of the Immigration officials.

Whilst I was standing at the head of the gangway, The American President Line Shore Captain, Thomas, went on to the gangway and shouted to his No. 1 to instruct the stevedores to come aboard by the lower gangway. I presume he had received instructions from the Immigration Authorities or Police that it was in order for the stevedores to come aboard and open up the hatches.
Several Immigration Officers were on the gangway and as the stevedores started to come on board every one of them produced his identification card complete with photograph. Shortly after the stevedores had started to file over the gangway, Mr. Forrest came to the head of the upper gangway and shouted to one of his Chinese Immigration Officers: "Who are those people coming on board?"

The Immigration Officer said they were stevedores. Mr. Forrest then said: "You get down there at once and anyone without a proper pass chuck him overboard."

The way this official acted aboard the ship was a disgrace to Hongkong, and gave the impression that he was mentally unbalanced; several American passengers and ship's officers commented in no measured terms on the incivility of Hongkong officials.
The attitude and methods of the Immigration Department are becoming a subject of openly adverse comment on all sides, and as I am jealous of the good reputation of Hongkong, especially the treatment of foreigners coming to or passing through the Colony, I report this in the hope that something may be done to improve matters. (Sgd.) C. M. Manners, Secretary and Manager.

UNPLEASANTNESS

Questioned by Mr. Forrest, Major Manners agreed that it was not the first time that they have had what might be called, official unpleasantness.

Mr. Forrest: The first time was with regard to the evacuation?—
Yes.

You wrote a minute to me on the same charges?—Yes.

To the effect that I had instructed the officer-in-charge of evacuation to evacuate as an European a woman whom I well knew was not a European?—Not exactly that, I did not have the foggiest idea of what was going on or was to be carried out.

Reverting to the day of the incident mentioned in Major Manners' letter, Mr. Forrest asked whether the instructions he gave to his subordinate was the only incident of rudeness or discourtesy.
Major Manners stated that that was only an incident.

Mr. Forrest: What right had you to remark that I came aboard in a very unpleasant humour?—
That was the impression I got.

APPEARED DISTURBED

Was it the expression on my face or some words that I spoke?
—When you came on board it appeared to me that you were unwell and you appeared to me to be disturbed about something.

During the course of further questioning, Major Manners was asked whether he took the phrase
"chuck him overboard" literally.

Mr. G. Trevorton receiving the Governor's Cup from His Excellency Sir Geoffrey Northcote at the Fanning races last Sunday.
Also in the picture is Lt.-Col. H. B. L. Dowbiggin.

to which he replied, "Naturally not."

Mr. Forrest then asked: "Apart from the phrase, there was nothing to suggest that I was a mentally unbalanced person?—It seemed to me that you were in a terrible rage over some matter or the other. That was the impression that I got, and it made me and all those around me rather nervous."

If I say Mr. Clague was present at the examination of passengers immediately before and after the incident, you will admit that his impression of my mood is in order?—Yes. Mr. Clague had been,
I know, inside during the examination. I did not go inside. I merely stood on the gangway. I did not know what was happening inside.

If Mr. Clague was to say that both before and after the incident
I was in a very good mood, you will admit that your impression was incorrect?—Not necessarily. I myself have been in a terrific temper one minute and was in a very pleasant mood a minute after.

The Chairman: Major Manners, you wrote the letter to Mr. Paterson in pursuance of what you presumed to be your duty?—Yes, Sir.
With no other motive whatsoever?—No, Sir.

"HULLO, DARLING"

Mrs. A. O. S. Campbell, of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co.,
Ltd., was then called, and in reply to the Chairman, agreed that she wrote the following letter to the Hon. Mr. J. J. Paterson, on Mar.
12:

Early in December I had occasion to make enquiries from the Immigration Office regarding a permit for my house boy to leave the Colony for a short visit to his family.

I rang up the Immigration Office and was put on to a Chinese official who was quite unable to understand my request, so I asked to be put on to the No. 1 of the Department. After a few minutes the following conversation ensued:—

Voice: "Hullo, darling, is that you, darling?"

Me: "I beg your pardon."

Voice: "Who are you, what do you want?"

whereupon I gave my name and submitted my request only to get the answer:—

"There's a Postal Service isn't there?" to which I replied that I was aware of that fact but as my boy wished to leave the Colony in two days' time I felt it useless to write as my letter would doubtless take several days to receive attention. I was then told in a very aggressive manner that if certainly would as he had weeks of correspondence on his desk unattended to and "I would like you to understand that I don't appreciate being rung up in the middle of the afternoon." Such a remark made me extremely annoyed and I replied to the effect that had I been the person to whom he addressed his endearing remarks at the beginning of our conversation no doubt he would have been prepared to waste a great deal of his time. To which he replied very angrily "That's none of your business." I assured him that in the circumstances it was and that having asked a civil question I expected a civil reply—before the end of my remark the telephone receiver had been slammed down.
(Sgd.) D. Campbell, 12/3/41.

DRAW CHEQUES

In reply to Mr. Forrest, Mrs.
Campbell agreed that she occasionally had to draw cheques against her banking account.
"Mr. Forrest: I don't know what I bank you keep your account with and I don't want to inquire, but assuming it was the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, would you ring up Sir V. M. Grayburn in connection with some matter relating to your account?—I did not ring up the Immigration Officer.
I asked for the No. 1 of the Inquiry Department."

Surely the No. 1 means the Head of the Immigration Office?—
No. I knew there were several departments and I asked for the Inquiry Department; I thought I would be put on to the Inquiry Department.

You took it for granted that the Immigration Office, established only a month before, was fully equipped with several departments as you would find in a bank established close on a century?—No.
You took it for granted there would be an official whose only business was to attend to the telephone and answer all inquiries?—
Yes.

MORE ATTENTION

You agree that any person, however busy he might be, would give slightly more attention to his family than to outsiders?—I suppose he would.

But that that does not mean that he would not explain to his wife or to a member of his family that he was very busy and could not afford the time to talk?—No.

Mr. Forrest then proceeded to question Mrs. Campbell as to the interval between the time the boy filed in the form and the conversation, and to whether she knew the fact that the Immigration Office was extremely busy. Mr.
Forrest was proceeding with his questions on the purpose of the Immigration Ordinance when the Chairman interposed with the comment that they were straying
"a little too far from the burden of Mrs. Campbell's letter," to which Mr. Forrest replied:

"I was working up to that point.
I was continually rung up by people who inquired about their house-boys, amahs, gardeners, and so forth. In view of the numbers with which we were dealing with every day, it was perfectly impossible for the Head of a Department to remember individual cases or even to make on the spot investigations into the cases, and Mrs. Campbell should have understood about that."

CHARGE OF INCIVILITY

The Chairman: That I appreciate except that last bit. But again I have to remind you that Mrs. Campbell would not have made the complaint had you stated to her that you were extremely sorry that you could not deal with cases over the telephone, and asked her to please write in. The charge is one of incivility.

Addressing Mrs. Campbell, Mr.
Forrest asked: Did I not ask you to write?—Yes, but the words you used were different. They were "There is a postal service, isn't there?"

The impression you got from my conversation was that I was anxious to cease it as soon as possible?—Yes.

"Don't you think it strange that if I wanted to cease the conversation rudely, I could have banged down the telephone. That fact that I said something at all seems to imply that I must have explained to you that this matter could only be dealt with in writing?—
Your remarks were not very helpful."

Perhaps not, but I suggested that you should write?—You did but not in a manner which I considered courteous.

MR. KESWICK'S LETTER

The Chairman then referred to a letter, addressed to Hon. Mr. J.
Paterson, by Mr. W. J. Keswick, Chairman of the Shanghai Municipal Council, who was a passenger on board the "President Monroe" which arrived in Hongkong on Feb. 9.

The letter read as follows:
Dear Paterson,—As you are on the Executive Council I feel I ought to report to you the unfortunate impression the Passport Authorities created on the arrival of a.s. "President Monroe" on which I came down from Shanghai on Feb. 8.
At the outset I ought to say that my wife and I received every possible courtesy. On production of have gone more smoothly or easily.

There appeared to be two foreigners examining passports—one more or less learning the job while the other supervised. The latter was the worst possible type of small Government Official—bullying and ill-mannered. This grey haired clerk, who was in charge, made one feel really ashamed of British Officialdom—especially as he was on an American ship.

There were several important Chinese passengers on board who on leaving Shanghai were told that transit visas were not necessary.
The passport clerk referred to above (I believe his name is Forrest) demanded H.K.$100.00 deposits from those without transit visas. Cash money as deposits was offered but he refused the cash and demanded drafts (they these were to be obtained on Sabbath morn in a Crown Colony I do not know). Eventually after he had been extremely rude, aggressive and in my opinion incompetent I had to give a personal written guarantee for two prominent Chinese gentlemen whom I knew. Why my guarantee for the payment of H.K.$100.00 is better than H.K.
$100.00 cash still remains a mystery.

No doubt in times of War and immigration the necessity for the strictest possible regulations is necessary. But I submit that these can be enforced competently, firmly and politely and that the behaviour of and interpretation of the regulations by the head pasport clerk who was on duty on "President Monroe" on this occasion added very little to British prestige in front of the Americans and Chinese whose sympathy it is so important that we should maintain. Yours sincerely (Sgd.)

U.S. Super-Defence Agency

More Planes, Ships, Tanks, Guns For Democracies

President Roosevelt's new super defence agency, ready to subordinate everything in national life to rearmament efforts, has begun its drive to make the United States the world's great arsenal for the defence of democracy and freedom.

OPM—the office for production management—was created by an executive order. It came into existence on January 7 when President Roosevelt signed commissions of the four members—Industrialist, Mr. William S. Knudsen; Labour Leader, Mr. Sidney Hillman; Secretary of War, Col. Henry L. Stimson, and Secretary of the Navy, Col. Frank Knox.

In the months ahead the letters OPM probably will become as significant and well known to the average citizen as did NRA in the early days of the New Deal. Whereas NRA was one of the President's attempts to defeat the depression of the 1930's OPM is designed to gear war production facilities so that Great Britain can defeat Germany.

Not since Woodrow Wilson made Mr. Bernard E. Baruch Chief of the War Industries Board during the World War has the United States moved so close to rigorous federal regulation of national economic life. For the first time during the present emergency—which Mr. Roosevelt has warned is "as serious as war itself"—the national rearmament effort will be delegated to a small organization.

STATEMENT ISSUED

The extent the OPM is prepared to go with the broad powers delegated to it by the President was revealed in this part of a statement issued by its four members: "We shall have need of the active, aggressive and enthusiastic co-operation of every man, woman and child in the United States if we are to make this arsenal in America adequate for successful defence of democracy and freedom. This can only mean that in the immediate future everything in our national life must be subordinated to the necessity for defence."

To Management, the OPM said: "Industry must subordinate its concern over the possible effects of tremendous immediate expansion to unexpressed hope for wartime profits must be sternly repressed." To labour, it said: "Intelligent and patriotic co-operation of the men who man the machines is vital. Labour must avoid any attempt to make improper use of its position in the present worldwide emergency. The whole principle of collective bargaining and the rights of labour... is being challenged."

To both management and labour, it said: "If the totalitarian forces of the world are victorious... both capital and labour will become the involuntary vassals of all-powerful state."

"SINGLE HEAD"

For all practical purposes responsibility for converting America's economy from a peace-time to a war-time emergency basis has been delegated to a single head, and the name of that single head, President Roosevelt told his press conference, is 'Knudsen-Hillman.' That was his answer to questions seeking to learn why he had not vested ultimate executive power in one person.

Thus two former immigrant boys become President Roosevelt's "single head" for the programme designed to speed this country's own defence programme and to supply Great Britain and other democracies resisting invasion with more planes, more ships, more tanks and more guns.

Mr. Knudsen, former production genius of the General Motors Corporation, came to America from Denmark at the age of 20 to work in New York shipyards. Since last June he has been chairman of the national defence advisory commission which OPM supersedes but does not entirely replace.

Mr. Hillman also emigrated to the United States at the age of 20. He came from Lithuania and since then has been an active labour leader in the clothing industry. Before becoming a member of the defence advisory commission he was vice-president of the C.I.O. and president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America.

STRONG PARADOX

Paradoxically, both Mr. Knudsen and Mr. Hillman's native countries are victims of the war in Europe. Mr. Knudsen's Denmark is now under the "protection" of Germany. Mr. Hillman's Lithuania was taken over by Russia after its war with Finland.

Mr. Knudsen becomes director general of the OPM; Mr. Hillman associate director general. Col. Stimson and Col. Knox will participate in the OPM's work of policy making and surveys.

Under that supreme command, three lesser divisions are established: 1. production, headed by Mr. John Biggers, glass executive, who took the unemployment census of 1938 and who was Mr. Knudsen's aide in the defence commission set up; 2. purchases, headed by Mr. Donald Nelson, mail order executive who has been co-ordinating all defence buying for the defence commission; 3. priorities, headed by Mr. Edward R. Stettinius Jr., former U.S. Steel Corporation chairman who is now material chief in the defence commission.

By executive order, President Roosevelt has shifted to OPM and its divisions virtually all the special executive powers granted him by Congress to speed defence preparations. These include the power to impose priorities on industry to get first claim to tools, raw materials and finished products, and the power, granted President Roosevelt in the draft law, to take over industries whose operators are adjudged recalcitrant in the defence effort.

Mr. Knudsen and Mr. Hillman will sign any priority orders which may be issued, but determination on necessity for priorities and recommendations for action will come from a six-man priorities board headed by Mr. Stettinius.

Mr. Knudsen and Hillman serve as ex-officio members of that board, and other members are Mr. Nelson and Mr. Leonard Henderson, the defence commission's controller of raw materials prices. The sixth member has yet to be revealed, but it was believed likely to be Mr. Biggers.

GERMAN-VICHY BARTER DEAL

Nazis Receive Cattle In Return For Wheat

NEW YORK, Mar. 27 (Reuter)—The wheat which is being sent from German-occupied France to un-occupied France is by means free, says the Vichy correspondent of the New York Times.

The transaction is a barter deal, the correspondent adds, and in return for the wheat, the Nazis receive cattle, pigs, salt, vegetables, cheese and wine.

The correspondent gives figures showing the considerable quantities received from un-occupied France by the Germans. They include 190,000 cattle, 600,000 small livestock, 600,000 calves and pigs; 36,000 tons of salad oil, 100,000 tons of salt, 60,000 tons of fresh vegetables, 8,000 tons of cheese and "a large quantity" of wine.

GOVT. INSURANCE SCHEME

Sir Kingsley Wood On War Damage Act

LONDON, Mar. 27 (Reuter)—"Under this scheme every British home is indeed a castle," declared Sir Kingsley Wood, Chancellor of the Exchequer, broadcasting last night on the new War Damage Act providing for compulsory insurance of property and free limited compensation for destroyed furniture.

The Chancellor declared that the scheme amply covered every one. It covered not only actual destruction but consequential damage such as that resulting from rain falling through a hole in the roof caused by bomb.

Those who had already suffered would be treated as if the scheme had been in force since the outbreak of war.

The Chancellor described the act as an essential part of our answer to Hitler. He added: "The R.A.F. over Germany are giving him another answer which will continue to grow more and more unpalatable to him."

Policing Of Badlands Queried In Commons

LONDON, March 27 (Reuter)—In the House of Commons yesterday, Mr. R. A. Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, replying to a question by Sir John Wardlaw-Milne regarding the working of the agreement for policing the Badlands outside the International Settlement in Shanghai, said that after lengthy negotiations extending over several months, an agreement was signed on February 1 and came into force on March 15.

Mr. Butler continued: "While conditions in the area have continued to be unsatisfactory in recent months, it is yet too early to judge what result the new agreement will have."

H.K. ROTARY CLUB FLAG DAY TOMORROW FOR PURCHASE OF AMBULANCES AND CANTEENS

The Rotary Club of Hongkong is holding a flag day tomorrow (March 29) when it hopes to raise a considerable sum for the purchase of motor ambulances and mobile canteens. The sum raised will be divided equally, one half being sent to Rotary International in England, and the other to Chinese headquarters. One mobile canteen has already been bought and is now operating in England.

The following letter shows how thoughts of friends at the other side of the world, to men serving here. Your generous gift will furnish what is known as a Light Canteen. This is built on the Ford chassis and is really a coffee stall, manned by two ladies. As you will know, all over the country there are isolated posts of eight or ten men on anti-aircraft work, and this type of van is found most suitable for getting to these stations, the sites of some of which preclude anything bigger getting near them. These men have a hard life and the chance of a warm meal, a chat to the team and the ability of purchasing cigarettes etc. make this work a real Godsend.

As soon as it is finished I will have it photographed and send out a copy to you.

Kindest regards,
Sincerely yours,
(Sd.) T. D. YOUNG,
(President R.I.B.I.)

Dr. Arthur W. Woo,
President Hongkong Rotary Club,
Woo Clinic,
China Building.

Dear Mr. President,
Messrs. Thomas Cook and Sons have handed us a cheque for £300 from your club for the provision of a Mobile Canteen. May I say on behalf of R.I.B.I. how grateful we are to you for this gesture. I have ordered the canteen and am placing it under the care of the Y.M.C.A.

It will carry the name of your club up and down the country and will be a messenger conveying the

Telegrams Between H.K. Government, Chungking

After reading the letter, the Chairman said: You may recall, Mr. Forrest, the constant burden of the telegrams in the past between the Government here, the British Agent in Chungking, the British Ambassador in Shanghai, and the Foreign Office, and I think you will agree that throughout the one thing that was stressed was the sympathetic treatment of Chinese?—Yes.

The Chairman: We have here a letter from a very senior and responsible gentleman, and it is only right that I should recollect the terms of that letter to you and ask you to give such explanation as you desire. It relates to what happened inside on the same occasion as mentioned by Major Manners.

Mr. Forrest: In the first place, it is a complete surprise to me that any person has suggested any rudeness with regard to my conduct inside. It is a great pity that the author of the letter is not here to answer the questions I should like to put, but I should like to call attention to the fact that he seemed to know my name, but not my full position, which makes it very doubtful to my mind, and I hope to yours, as to whether he actually gathered his information as to my identity on the spot. There was another grey-haired official present at the time.

The Chairman: I gathered from Major Manners that Mr. Burnie was the officer-in-charge, and that you were the other European official who visited the ship. It was common ground that you were inside taking part in the passport examination.

Mr. Forrest: I was endeavouring to teach Mr. Burnie as I had received complaints from the same company that there had been unnecessary delay in the examination of their ships.

The Chairman: Do you say that there were two officials there, one more or less learning the job, and the other supervising?

THREE OFFICIALS

Mr. Forrest: I have since learned there were three. The other being a Russian sergeant in plain clothes whose name is Korshonoff, I believe. In any case, his information did not strike me as correct, especially as regard my official status, etc., and I would say that I had noticed myself at the time that Mr. Burnie's attitude was rather that of a supervisor. The reasons why the personal guarantee of Mr. Keswick, as soon as I learned his identity, was more acceptable than cash can be gathered from what I have said in my memorandum. These Chinese gentlemen referred to were prominent or otherwise I don't know, except Mr. Keswick himself. I hope to be given the opportunity of calling Mr. Clague, who was the only person not in my service, present at the time.

Mr. Yuen Tak-lau, of the Immigration Office, produced two account books, one of which was the Vote Ledger, for the Commission's inspection. He also produced a wooden box which, he said, was used for transferring permits from one office to another. This box, when containing the permits, was locked and had a green label affixed thereto.

Mr. W. H. Chen then read out a statement, in the course of which he said:

I have been Assistant Immigration Officer since January 2, 1941, prior to which time I was for many years a member of the editorial staff of the North-China Daily News in Shanghai. Following my arrival in Hongkong, I was appointed Associate Editor, and later Editor, of the Hongkong Daily Press. Concurrently, I was Editor of the Far Eastern Journal, a monthly publication, which I gave up at the end of last year to join the Immigration Office.

I did not realize, until I had actually joined the service and taken up duty, the importance of the Immigration Officer's task, but, when I joined him, I immediately found that he was faced with difficulties of many kinds.

Conditions up to even a few weeks ago bordered on chaos but such big crowds and such a demand for permits and residence certificates were never contemplated.

I estimate that the space allotted to the general public was sufficient for about 60 persons only, but on occasions we had, I am sure, at least three times that number with scores and scores of others pressing in from the street and with many others standing in a queue on both sides of the door.

QUESTION OF SHROFFS

With reference to the question of shroffs, I am certain that, had we a couple of extra shroffs, the work of the Immigration Office would have been accelerated considerably.

Under the conditions which we worked, I hold that, if we were able to show fifty per cent. efficiency, we were doing remarkably well. Up to only a few weeks ago, we did not have a chance to settle down but now that we have put things into working order of a more or less normal type (though I might add that we could do better if we were given a little more time to put things in ship-shape order), things are working more smoothly.

MEMBERS PUNISHED

We have been accused of discourtesy and incivility. I hold no brief for those who are rude or uncivil and I can assure you, that apart from doing everything we can to deal with cases of discourtesy which come to our attention. Already some staff members have been punished.

We have been accused of corruption. May I read several warnings which have been issued to the staff by the Immigration Officer in this connexion? No mercy is being shown to any member of the staff found engaging in dishonest practices, and no stone is being left unturned in our efforts to stamp out the evil.

We feel that we have done, and that we are still doing, our best under the prevailing circumstances and now that conditions have been so improved, mainly with regard to accommodation, equipment and the cessation of the rush, we feel confident that the Immigration Office will run smoothly enough to comply with the public's requirements.

In reply to Mr. Forrest, Mr. Chen agreed that during his career he gained the enmity of quite a number of persons, and handed in to the Commission a list of those whom he thought might harbour thoughts of enmity against him.

The Chairman: I see that the first name on your list is that of Mr. K. L. Dunn who is, you said, no longer with the Immigration Office. Can you say from first-hand knowledge why his services were terminated?—Yes, Sir, I investigated the matter myself and found that he was demanding, and obtaining, from members of the staff part of their salaries every month.

After Mr. B. C. Hobbs, Assistant Immigration Officer, had given evidence of the difficulty he experienced in obtaining transportation to ships in the harbour, Mr. Shou J. Chen, Manager of the Bank of China, identified a letter addressed by him to the four Chinese members of the Legislative Council in which he complained of the affront on his Bank by the Immigration Officer.

In reply to the Chairman, Mr. Chen said that the Bank of China has been established in Hongkong

BREACH OF CONTRACT ALLEGED

CLAIM BROUGHT FOR $1,000

Further evidence was given before Mr. Justice Williams at the Summary Court yesterday in the case in which T. O. Wong and Co., Ltd., claimed from the Kwong Sun Hong, of No. 44 Bonham Strand West, $1,000 for breach of a contract for the sale and purchase of 343 tins of pure "Yau Hop" tea-seed oil, entered into between the two parties on Dec. 12, 1939.

Plaintiffs were represented by Mr. W. M. Brown, while Mr. F. H. Losby was for the defendants.

At the resumed hearing, Mr. Brown applied for an amendment to the writ by substituting the words "by contract" for "in writing."

T. O. Wong, proprietor of plaintiff firm, gave evidence that defendants refused to give him a sample of the oil for test and later, through their gild, approached him to take delivery of the goods.

He took delivery of 320 tins and found the oil to be bad. Hearing was adjourned to April 16, at 2.30 p.m.

IRRIGATION CANALS

The Kansu Provincial Government has announced that two irrigation canals will be built in the province in the course of this year. They are the Yungfeng Canal and the Lama Canal in Yungfeng hsien, west Kansu, measuring 25 kilometers and 27 kilometers respectively.

After the completion of the two canals, more than 73,000 mow of land can be irrigated and made productive.—(Central News).

since 1913, and was considered one of the leading banks in China.

Mr. Ma Tsui-chul, J.P., stated that on Jan. 18 he endorsed the application of a friend for a 4-year certificate, signing both as the manager of a firm and as a J.P. This endorsement was accepted by the D.I.O., but rejected by the I.O. who called for the endorsement of the Commissioner of Customs as the applicant was a Customs man.

AFTERNOON HEARING

When the Inquiry was resumed at the Supreme Court in the afternoon, Mr. H. S. Sequeira, and Mr. T. C. Sun, of the National Industrial Bank of China, Shanghai, gave evidence of incivility at Immigration Office.

Mr. Chan Kwok-yuen, head clerk of the Immigration Office, said that he ceased to ask for more clerks because there was no sufficient space and also because he wanted to see how the work was getting on.
